CONDITIONS OF SALE

All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the Catalogue.

The highest bidder to be the buyer. In all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.

Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option. Unsettled accounts are subject to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good SECOND-HAND condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule. Magazines and other periodicals, and all miscellaneous books arranged in parcels, are sold as they are, without recourse.

Autograph Letters, Documents, Manuscripts and Bindings are sold as they are, without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.

BIDS. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

Priced Copy of this Catalogue may be secured for fifty cents for each session of the sale.

OF GREAT HISTORICAL IMPORTANCE. After the "march to the sea" and the surrender of Johnston, Gen. Sherman granted terms to the Confederates which were considered too lenient by President Johnson, and the general was sharply rebuked by the secretary of war, Stanton. He writes: "I was hurt, outraged and insulted at Mr. Stanton's public arraignment of my motives and actions, at his endorsing Gen. Halleck's insulting and offensive dispatch, and his studied silence when the press accused me of all sorts of base motives, even of selling myself to Jeff. Davis for gold, of sheltering criminals and entertaining ambitious views at the expense of my country. . . . I would like Mr. Johnson to read this letter . . ." Endorsed on the back by Gen. Grant: "Respectfully forwarded to the President of the United States with the request that this letter be returned after reading. U. S. Grant."

- 291 WILDE (OSCAR). AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT POEM, "Le Crépuscule." 3 verses of four lines each, written on one page folio.

This poem appeared as No. III in "Lotus Leaves," published in The Irish Monthly for February, 1877, but with quite a variation in the last stanza. It also appeared in its present form as the second of the two "Impressions," under the title of "La Fuite de la Lune," in "Pan" for April 23, 1881.

- 292 —— AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT POEM, "Selene." 3 verses of four lines each, written on one page, folio.

This poem appeared as the first number of "Lotus Leaves," in "The Irish Monthly" for February, 1877, with a number of variations from the manuscript. In the present manuscript Wilde has made a correction in the first line, deleting the first two words "I had" and inserting "There was."

- 293 —— AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT POEM, "Tristitiae." 3 verses of four lines each, written on one page, folio, soiled.

This poem first appeared in the "Dublin University Magazine" for September, 1876.

MANUSCRIPT EPIGRAMS BY OSCAR WILDE.

- 294 WILDE (OSCAR). AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT EPIGRAMS.
Written on 6 pp., folio.

THERE ARE 37 EPIGRAMS IN ALL, SIMILAR TO THOSE IN HIS "Phrases and Philosophies for the use of the Young," which appeared for the first time in "The Chameleon," Vol. 1, No. 1, all that was ever published.

THIS IS UNDOUBTEDLY THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPT OR ROUGH DRAFT, as there are many corrections, deletions and additions. They are all in Wilde's terse brilliant style. We quote a few.

"Good news can always keep. It is only bad news that one should hear at once, and then one should never listen."

"The tragedy of every woman's life is that her past is always her lover, and her future invariably her husband."

"There are many things that we would throw away if we were not afraid that other people would pick them up."

ACCOMPANYING THIS MANUSCRIPT IS A COPY OF "The Chameleon" above referred to, containing Wilde's "Phrases and Philosophies for the use of the Young."

ONLY 100 COPIES OF THIS PERIODICAL, WHICH NEVER REACHED A SECOND NUMBER, WERE ISSUED, AND IT IS NOW EXTREMELY RARE. This copy is in its pristine state, unopened, and wrappers in perfect condition. It contains in addition to the "Phrases," "Two Poems" by Lord Alfred Douglas, "The Priest and the Acolyte," and other contributions.

- 295 WILDE-WHISTLER. Wilde v. Whistler, being an Acrimonious Correspondence on Art between Oscar Wilde and James McNeill Whistler. 8vo, original wrappers.

London: Privately printed, 1906

One of 100 copies on Large Paper.

- 296 WINTHROP (JOHN). The History of New England, from 1630 to 1649. With Notes by James Savage. 2 vols., 8vo, half calf. Boston, 1853

- 297 WITHER (GEO.). A Satyre Written to the Kings most Excellent Maiestic. 12mo, morocco, gilt edges. London, 1622 SCARCE.

- 298 —— Divine Poems (by way of Paraphrase) on the Ten Commandments. Second edition. Illustrated with curious copper-plates. 12mo, calf. London, 1728

This edition is the same as the first issued in 1688, with a new title-page, the work being posthumous, and published by the author's daughter.

- 299 WITHERS (ALEXANDER S.). Chronicles of Border Warfare, or, a History of the Settlement by the Whites, of North-Western Virginia; and of the Indian Wars and Massacres, in that Section of the State; with Reflections, Anecdotes, etc. 12mo, contemporary calf (stained, front fly-leaves lacking, and contemporary writing on last blank leaves).

Clarksburg, Va.: Published by Joseph Israel, 1831

Fine copy in contemporary binding of the VERY RARE FIRST EDITION, with the unpaged leaf of "Advertisement," but without the table of contents, which was apparently published in later issues. Having been issued in a remote corner of North-western Virginia, and designed principally for local circulation, almost every copy was read by a country fire-side until scarcely legible.

"The author took much pains to be authentic, and his chronicles are considered by Western antiquarians to form the best collection of frontier life and Indian warfare, that has been printed."—Field.

In May 1918, there was sold at The Anderson Galleries in New York City the Library of the late Winston H. Hagen. Beverly Chew wrote a brief introduction in the sale catalogue, the closing paragraph of which I must quote. "One who followed with some apprehension Mr. Hagen's continual investment in books said he thought he would do better to purchase good bonds. 'No,' said Hagen, 'my books are worth more than your bonds.' Let us hope he is right."

This was written before the event. What happened? We know what has happened in the bond market. Bonds have gone down, I am told by those who own them, an average of twenty points. I was present when the books were sold, and saw Beverly Chew's hope confirmed. The books were very choice, it must be admitted, and there was that atmosphere of good-humor and good-fellowship which Mitchell Kennerley tries so successfully to disseminate and which is so important in an auction room.

"The Amenities of Book Collecting"

When my books have to be sold, I have decided that my friend Mitchell Kennerley will put upon my sales catalogue:-

WHO'LL BUY, WHO'LL BUY
THE BOOKS OF A BUSTED BIBLIOPHILE?
